PSYCHOLOGY 491 HONORS CONTRACT

PSYC 491: Research. Credit 0-3. Research conducted under the supervision of a chosen faculty member in the department of psychology; involves discussion and presentation of student research projects. Prerequisites: PSYC 484 or PSYC 485; Approval of instructor.

Student’s name_____________________________________ UIN_________________

Major ________________________________________________________________________

Phone #________________________ email_________________________________________

Semester ____________ Supervising Faculty (please print) ____________________

Credit Hours ____________ (0-3 hours)

*NOTE: If student is an Undergraduate Research Scholar or Fellow, this course MAY be taken as a 2 hour credit to be taken simultaneously with the 1-hour PSYC 491-900 (Writing Workshop) provided by the Honors Office. PSYC 491-900 provides writing intensive credit for Scholars and Fellows.

Briefly state the topic area to be covered: _______________________________________

____________________________________________________________________________

What research-related activities are required by the student?

____________________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________________

The student must produce a 2000-word-minimum paper describing the research in which they participate. Specify additional determinants of the student’s a grade.________________

____________________________________________________________________________

Supervising faculty signature ____________________________

_________________ (date)

Graduate student signature ______________________________

_________________ (date)

Student signature ______________________________________

_________________ (date)

Student must take completed form to Milner Room 205 between 8-11:30AM DURING OPEN REGISTRATION to be forced into this course. Completion of this form does NOT register you for the course.