

Planetary Health and the Humanities Conference

Travel and Local Information

This conference is free and open to the public. Attendees must register by March 27 by filling out this form. The full program with confirmed speakers can be found here.

Date: March 31st from 4:00-8:00pm and April 1st, 2022 from 9:00am-5:15pm

Location: Texas A&M Hotel & Conference Center, Hullabaloo Room

Travel Information

Flight information:

Easterwood Airport is located in College Station, Texas, and is the most convenient airport to fly into.

George Bush International Airport is located in Houston, Texas. Ground Shuttle provides transportation from the airport to College Station.

Austin-Bergstrom International Airport is located in Austin, Texas. Stream Ride offers a shuttle between Austin and College Station.

Rental Car Information

At Easterwood Airport, cars can be rented through AVIS, Enterprise, or Alamo.

Car rentals companies available through George Bust International Airport can be found here.

Car rental companies available through Austin-Bergstrom International Airport can be found here.

Uber and Lyft both operate in the Bryan/College Station area.

Parking Information

Paid parking is available in the Gene Stallings Blvd Parking Garage, located next to the Hotel & Conference Center. Please visit the Transportation Services website for more information.

TAMU Busses

Texas A&M University operates a bus system that navigates both on and off campus. Bus route information can be found here.

Hotel Information

Attendees are welcome to book a reservation at the Texas A&M Hotel & Conference Center, where the conference is being held. However, there are other hotels in the area that attendees can also reserve.

4-Star Hotel Options

Cavalry Court and The George are 4-star hotel options that are within walking distance to Texas A&M's campus. They are located within Century Square, which offers plenty of shopping and dining options. The Stella Hotel is close to College Station Airport.

3-Star Hotel Options

Staybridge Suites College Station

Embassy Suites by Hilton College Station

Homes 2 Suites by Hilton College Station

2-Star Hotel Options

Fairfield Inn & Suites Bryan College Station

Candlewood Suites College Station, an IHG Hotel*

*Located 2.1 miles from campus

Dining Information

Dinner will be provided for speakers and attendees the night of March 31st directly following the keynote lecture (6-8pm). On April 1st, a light breakfast will be provided at 8:30am, as well as lunch at 1:15pm. Coffee, tea, and water will be available throughout the day.

For other dining options:

The Texas A&M Hotel and Conference center provides several dining options: The Brazos - Proper Texas Kitchen, the Block T Bar & Grill, and The Junction Market & Cafe.

Century Square, located within 1.5 miles of the Texas A&M Hotel and Conference Center, offers several dining options. In addition, various restaurants can be found along University Avenue.

Local Attractions

On Campus

TAMU campus tours and other resources can be found at the Visitor Center website (though is primarily advertised to perspective students).

The George H.W. Bush Presidential Library & Museum is open to visitors.
Cushing Memorial Library & Archives offers individual or group tours.

In Bryan/College Station

The towns of Bryan and College Station are situated next to each other and offer various local attractions. Attractions in Bryan can be found here, including information on Lake Bryan, Downtown Bryan, restaurants, and events. Attractions in College station can be found here, including various event calendars, restaurants, and shopping venues.