

Gabrielle Lyle

Education

Texas A&M University

College Station, TX

MA in History

Thesis: B'nai Borderlands: The Development of Jewish Communities in the Rio Grande Valley

Expected Completion: December 2020

The Ohio State University

Columbus, OH

BA in International Studies with a specialization in Security and Intelligence, Magna Cum Laude with Research Distinction

Undergraduate Senior Thesis "The Legacy of Ilan Ramon in Israeli Society"

Graduation: May 2018

University of Victoria

Victoria, BC, Canada

Digital Humanities Summer Institute (Sound and Digital Humanities Course)

June 2021

University of San Francisco

San Francisco, CA

Hebrew San Francisco: Ulpan

July 2019

Academic Honors

Digital Humanities Summer Institute Scholarship Recipient, University of Victoria, 2019-2020 (Postponed due to COVID-19)

Center for Digital Humanities Research Fellowship, Texas A&M University, 2019-2020 (Postponed due to COVID-19)

Summer Language Training and Professional Development Grant, History Department, Texas A&M University, 2019, 2020

Texas A&M/Association of Former Students Merit Fellowship, 2018-2023, Texas A&M University

Dean's List, The Ohio State University (8 semesters)

The Reva and Sanford Lipson Student Support Fund Recipient, 2015 and 2017, The Ohio State University

The Morris and Fannie Skilken Family Foundation Endowment Fund Scholarship for Yiddish and Ashkenazi Studies, 2016, The Ohio State University

Richard P. Erickson Scholarship Recipient, 2016, Lifetouch Inc.

Conference Presentations

Lightening Round Participant, “Are You Meshuga? Jews in the Borderlands? An Analysis of Jewish Migration to the Rio Grande Valley”, Western History Association Upcoming Annual Meeting, October 14-17, 2020 (Virtual due to COVID-19)

“There’s Jews in the Valley? The Hidden History of the McAllen Jewish Community”, Western Jewish Studies Association Annual Meeting, Las Vegas, NV, March 29-30, 2020 (Cancelled due to COVID-19)

“The Valley Jews of Texas: The Development of the Brownsville Jewish Community”, Louisiana State University History Graduate Student Association Conference, Baton Rouge, LA, March 6-7, 2020

Papers

Lyle, Gabrielle. “An Overview of 2014 Israeli-Palestinian Relations.” In Schnell, James (ed.). Security and Intelligence Issues in an Evolving World. Saarbrücken, Germany: Lambert Academic Publishing, 2015, pages 21-29

Skills

Hebrew Language: Working Proficiency.

French Language: Elementary Proficiency.

Computer: Familiarity with Microsoft Word, Excel, and PowerPoint.

Professional Experience

Graduate Teaching Assistant, Department of History, Texas A&M University (2019-Present)

Fall 2020: HIST 106-U.S. History from 1877 (Dr. Lawrence Trent MacNamara)

Spring 2020: HIST 105-U.S. History to 1877 (Dr. Verity G. McInnis)

Fall 2019: HIST 106-U.S. History from 1877 (Dr. Lawrence Trent MacNamara)

Research Assistant for “Homicide in America” project under Dr. Randolph Roth, The Ohio State University (September 2017-April 2018)

- Analyzed murder cases in Cuyahoga County, Ohio from 1995.
- Composed narratives about the murder cases.

Community Development Coordinator Intern at Wikistrat through Onward Israel Columbus Program (June 19th, 2016-August 8th, 2016)

- Managed seven online interns.
- Surveyed potential Wikistrat recruits before inviting them to the network.
- Constructed biographies on various Wikistrat community members.
- Analyzed the monthly statistics.