

APPLICATION FOR ARCHAEOLOGICAL CONSERVATION TRAINING CERTIFICATE
DEPARTMENT OF ANTHROPOLOGY, TEXAS A&M UNIVERSITY

Student: _____ UIN: _____

Semester Required Courses (Must have a 'B' grade or above for each course)

_____ ANTH 605 – 3 Credit hours, Conservation of Archaeological Resources I – Fundamentals and applications of artifact conservation techniques in archaeology

_____ ANTH 606 – 3 Credit hours, Conservation of Archaeological Resources II – Practical, hands-on experience on the identification and conservation of metal and organic materials

Additional Courses (Must have a 'B' grade or above for each course)

_____ ANTH 617 – 3 Credit hours, Conservation of Organic Materials –Practical, hands-on experience in the preservation of organic material culture using traditional and newly-discovered preservation methods.

_____ ANTH 663 – 3 Credit hours, Analytical Methods in Archaeology and Conservation – Fundamentals of analytical methods and documentation methods used on archaeological materials.

_____ ANTH 685 – 1-4 Credit hours, Research – Areas of research may include directed studies or internships at the Conservation Research Laboratory

_____ Optional: Credit hour substitutions for one of the above courses. Must be accompanied with a letter of verification substantiating conservation experience provided by previous work experience or coursework. Subject to approval in advance by the director of the Conservation Research Laboratory

 12 CREDIT HOURS TOTAL, ALL COURSES TAKEN AT TEXAS A&M

Academic Advisor _____
Signature Date

Director, CRL _____
Signature Date

Department Head _____
Signature Date