PSYCHOLOGY 491 HONORS CONTRACT

PSYC 491: Research. Credit 0-3. Research conducted under the supervision of a chosen faculty member in the department of psychology; involves discussion and presentation of student research projects. Prerequisites: PSYC 484 or PSYC 485; Approval of instructor.

Student’s name____________________________________ UIN____________________

Major __________________________________________________________________

Phone #____________________________ email______________________________

Semester: Fall__Spring__Summer 1__Summer 2__10 weeks__

Supervising Faculty (please print) ____________________

Credit Hours ____________ (0-3 hours)(REQUIRED)

*NOTE: If student is an Undergraduate Research Scholar or Fellow, this course MAY be taken as a 2 hour credit to be taken simultaneously with the 1-hour PSYC 491-900 (Writing Workshop) provided by the Honors Office. PSYC 491-900 provides writing intensive credit for Scholars and Fellows.

Briefly state the topic area to be covered: ____________________________________

______________________________________________________________________

What research-related activities are required by the student?

______________________________________________________________________

______________________________________________________________________

The student must produce a 2000-word-minimum paper describing the research in which they participate. Specify additional determinants of the student’s a grade._______________

______________________________________________________________________

Supervising faculty signature (REQUIRED) __________________________________

_____________ (date)

Student signature _________________________________________________

_____________ (date)

Student must take completed form to Milner Room 205 between 8am and noon DURING OPEN REGISTRATION to be forced into this course. Completion of this form does NOT register you for the course.

When registering for 1-3 credit hours, you will be billed for this course. Please contact Student Business Services for more information.