PSYCHOLOGY 491 HONORS CONTRACT

PSYC 491: Research. Credit 0-3. Research conducted under the supervision of a chosen faculty member in the department of psychology; involves discussion and presentation of student research projects. Prerequisites: PSYC 484 or PSYC 485; Approval of instructor.

Student’s name_____________________________________ UIN_________________

Major __________________________________________________________________

Phone #____________________________ email_________________________________

Semester: Fall__Spring__Summer 1__Summer 2__10 weeks__

Supervising Faculty (please print) ____________________

Credit Hours ____________ (0-3 hours)(REQUIRED)

*NOTE: If student is an Undergraduate Research Scholar or Fellow, this course MAY be taken as a 2 hour credit to be taken simultaneously with the 1-hour PSYC 491-900 (Writing Workshop) provided by the Honors Office. PSYC 491-900 provides writing intensive credit for Scholars and Fellows.

Briefly state the topic area to be covered: ________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________________

What research-related activities are required by the student?

____________________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________________

The student must produce a 2000-word-minimum paper describing the research in which they participate. Specify additional determinants of the student’s a grade._______________

____________________________________________________________________________

Supervising faculty signature (REQUIRED) __________________________________________

__________________ (date)

Student signature _____________________________________________________________

__________________ (date)

STUDENTS may email this contract to PSYCADVSING@TAMU.EDU during OPEN REGISTRATION to be forced into this course. Completion of this form does NOT register you for the course.
When registering for 1-3 credit hours, you will be billed for this course. Please contact Student Business Services for more information.